Tobacco Nutrition Physical Activity Media Built Environment Youth/Schools

Organization Description

National Tobacco Prevention Network (NAATPN) is located in downtown Durham in an area that was once part of the tobacco manufacturing district with satellite locations in South Carolina and Texas. Its mission is to serve as a national organization dedicated to facilitating the development and implementation of comprehensive and community competent tobacco control programs to benefit communities and people of African descent. The organization works with African American communities across the U.S. including working with communities of color in the U.S. Virgin Islands.
